

"A MOTOR FUNCTION TEST SYSTEM"ABSTRACT

The present finding relates to a motor function test system as well as to a method of acquisition and 5 collection of the signals and their processing into the corresponding parameters for a motor function test. In particular, said system and method relate to the quantification of the performance of a subject during the evaluation of balance as defined by the Tinetti test.

10

[Figure 1]